

Mitsuo Inukai

301 West Highland McAllen, TX 78501 mitsuo.inukai01@utrgv.edu (956) 360-2797

Objective:

In search of betterment in technical skills to deliver results in industry and impact the world through technological development.

Education:

Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering

The University of Texas–Pan American, Edinburg, TX

Expected Graduation Date:

Fall 2017

- GPA: 3.49

Associates of Science in Engineering

South Texas College, McAllen, TX

Degree Received:

Spring 2014

Achieve Early College High School, McAllen, TX

High School Diploma Received:

Spring 2014

Experience:

Student Learning Assistant

Spring 2014 - Present

- Tutor students at STC in a variety of fields in Mathematics and Engineering:
 - Contemporary Math & Fundamentals of Math
 - College Algebra & Pre-Calculus
 - Business Calculus & Calculus I
 - College Physics
 - Engineering Statics
- Assist students with mental and physical disabilities, adapting to best facilitate learning
- Communicate effectively with students on the different subjects required
- Time-manage, coordinating sessions to maximize efficiency and student learning
- Present to and manage large group of students
- Adapt quickly to stressful situations such large number of tasks at hand and workloads

Extracurricular Activities:

Member, UTRGV Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society

Spring 2015 - Present

Secretary, UTRGV Phi Iota Alpha Fraternity

Spring 2015 - Present

Member, UTRGV Baja Club

Spring 2015 - Present

Skills:

Languages: Fluent in English and Spanish (Speak, Read and Write)

Computer Skills: Experienced in SolidWorks, Microsoft Office Word, PowerPoint, and Excel